Community Discussion/Concerns

-none

Roads and Bridges

-Dave Riley said they were still waiting on the road signs to come in.

-Steve Runkle presented a written road agreement for trustees to sign. The road agreement was verbally approved at prior meetings by both Jackson township and Mad River township.

-Dave Riley updated that the Grant that was submitted for River Road was denied.

Cemeteries

-No update on Rector Gard Cemetery.

Equipment

-Trustees updated that the repairs on the F350 were completed.

Zoning

-Mr. Purk said that there appears to be some work being done on the Humphrey property for cleanup. He said the property in Westville has now been mowed, but the property on Phillips Circle has not yet been mowed. He said there is another property in Phillips Circle that has chickens open roaming and he is checking on the requirements related to that. He is meeting with the LUC to discuss agriculture in residential subdivisions. Trustees asked Mr. Purk about the complaint tracking form he was going to start using. He said he had forgot that form but would bring it next time. Mr. Purk asked trustees if they would like to get a monthly update email. Trustees said that would be a good idea so Mr. Purk will start sending a monthly update email.

Other Administrative

-no administrative issues to discuss

Motion: Brent Laughman motioned to adjourn the meeting at 7:39pm. Dave Riley seconded the motion. Motion passed.
