Community Discussion/Concerns

-none

Roads and Bridge

-No updates

Cemeteries

-Mr. Laughman said he received a complaint on a headstone that looked like a mower had bumped into it and took off the flag holder. Trustees agreed to replace the flag holder. Mr. Laughman will get a new flag holder for it.

Equipment

-None

Zoning

-Mr. McGlaun said he found some zoning complaints in the old emails for the zoning officer. He will be following up to see which ones are outstanding and need follow up. Trustees also told him about Edward Humphrey's property that we have been battling since 2014. Mr. McGlaun will put together a list by next month's meeting. Mr. McGlaun also brought up that he is looking into zoning software that would help us go paperless which would help prevent spread of COVID. No action at this time. Mr. McGlaun said he is signed up for the LUC annual meeting as well as getting training info from the LUC. Trustees agreed that Greg could purchase the zoning sourcebook from the OTA. Mr. Ford will order that sourcebook for Mr. McGlaun.

Other Administrative

-Trustees discussed the CARES Act fund and options available. Mr. Ford presented info on touchless soap dispensers and room UV sterilizers. Mr. Riley will follow up on UV sterilizers.

-Motion: Mr. Riley motioned to adjourn the meeting at 8:06pm. Mr. Laughman seconded motion. Motion passed unanimously.
